

Science 9

Assignment 2 due: Monday September 22nd P4

Answer all questions fully. Write neatly.

1. What are 6 ways that a poplar tree interacts with its environment?
2. What is the difference between an animal's habitat and its niche?
3. What are three examples of resources that organisms need to share?
4. What are two types of competition and what do they mean?
5. If there is competition between similar animals what are the two possible ways that the competition may end?
6. Why might a plant have no defenses against being eaten by an animal?
7. What are the two different adaptations an organism has that allow it to survive?
8. What are two disadvantages of having a narrow niche?
9. What are the two general categories of organisms as it relates to their niches?
10. What can happen if a species is introduced to an area where it has never been before?
11. What does symbiosis mean?
12. Give two examples of symbiotic organisms.